Program Highlights: Advanced Math Ed Option II

Based on Key Assessment data and other evidence (press releases, program documents, newspaper articles) please share one to five highlights about your program. Please provide links for external sources where possible:

Recent graduates of the program continue to teach in secondary schools, community colleges, and enter doctoral programs in mathematics education. The degree provides a rigorous graduate master’s degree in mathematics with appropriate content and pedagogy for mathematics educators.