The Professional Education Unit has experienced an increase in Native American students and a decrease in Caucasian students. This rate of change is not reflective of the changes in Montana demographics.